

E Ola Ka Lāhui Hawai'i

na Ikaika Blackburn

Aloha e ka lehulehu o Hawai'i
No Hawai'i pae 'āina kamaha'o
He 'āina kulāiwi mai nā kūpuna
He Kanaka maoli kākou

Hui:

Kūpa'a nā kia'i o Keawe (eō)
Onipa'a nā koa o Maui nui (eō)
Kūpono nā ko'o o O'ahu (eō)
Kūkia nā pū'ali a'o Mano (eō)
(E ola mau ka lāhui Hawai'i)

He kāhea nei i nā Kānaka
E 'ākoakoa pū no kākou
Eō e nā kia'i o nā 'ailana
E palekana i ka piko a Wākea

Hāpai mau ke kuleana o nā kūpuna
E mālama i ka 'āina o Hawai'i nei
Ha'ina 'ia mai e puana nei
I ola mau ke kulāiwi o Hawai'i

*So beloved by the people of Hawai'i
Are these wondrous islands, Hawai'i
Our Native Land given by our Ancestors
We are the true people of this land*

Chorus:

*Be steadfast! Protectors of Keawe
Be firm! Warriors of Maui Nui
Stand strong! Our pillars of O'ahu
Be steady! Our soldiers of Mano
(The Hawaiian Nation shall forever live)*

*This is a call out to all our people
To gather all together
A call out to all protectors of the islands
It's time to protect our summit of Wākea*

*We are entrusted to carry the responsibility of our ancestors
To take care of the land, Hawai'i
So the refrain of which is being said
This native land of Hawai'i shall forever live on!*
